Live Free and Ham Podcast Show

Media Profile

About the Show

Propagating from the beautiful state of New Hampshire, three Hams have come together to share their enthusiasm for the Amateur Radio hobby. Join Eric, Ryan, and Todd as they explore various aspects of the hobby with other Hams in New Hampshire, New England, and beyond. They enjoy collaborating with other like-minded hams and content creators to spread the word that Ham radio is an active and growing hobby.

Their podcast / YouTube channel airs bi-weekly with a once-a-month live stream.

How it all began

During a casual discussion about our local ham radio experiences while operating at Field Day, attending local ham fests, and participating with our club, we realized the hobby needed to be better represented in our local area.

Focused on producing a podcast that captures our interests, our first episode was released in June 2023. We have been thrilled to see people tuning in and are grateful for all the support we have received; it motivates us further.
